

Mark Dietzler

MEDIATOR

WAMS Mediator Certification: 2021

Expertise Areas:

- Catastrophic Injuries and Wrongful Death
- Auto Accidents and Personal Injuries
- UM/UIM Mediation
- Premises Liability
- Tort Litigation and General Negligence
- Construction Defects & Injuries

Accomplishments:

As an experienced litigator, arbitrator and mediator, Mark Dietzler joined WAMS mediation panel in 2023. His 30-year esteemed career as a trial attorney covers a range of tort claims, including polytraumatic and catastrophic injury, auto accidents, uninsured and underinsured motorist claims, premises liability, and construction defect.

Mr. Dietzler has represented both plaintiffs and defendants in significant personal injury and tort matters. He has personally litigated thousands of claims in both private practice and as the managing attorney for one of the largest property and casualty insurers in the United States. Mr. Dietzler is uniquely qualified in understanding probable outcomes, effectively evaluating claims and managing the gray area.

Education:

- Edwards Mediation Academy Certification, 2018
- Pacific Lutheran University, MBA Technology and Innovative Management
- University of Puget Sound School of Law, JD
- University of Minnesota, BA Business and Economics

Affiliations:

- Washington Arbitration & Mediation Service
- Washington State Bar Association
- Washington Defense Trial Lawyers
- Tacoma-Pierce County Bar Association
- American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA)